Neighborhood Club Receives Special Treat at Yule Party

By JANET ROBINSON
FR 5-7063

Helen Hackbusch was hostess to the neighborhood club for a Christmas party.

Her thespian husband, Charles, and two of his associates, Ronald Marriot and Joyce Polle, entertained the group with two one act comedies, titled "Red and Jed" and "The Mrs. Wetherby."

Both plays were written by Ronald Marriot and directed by Ande Lamb, a well known Hollywood writer. The actors and actress had their audience in stitches through both plays.

Their acts are much in demand this season as they are playing in a USO show, already having made appearances at one of the USO centers downtown LA and at Norton AFB and yet to appear at March AFB and George AFB before Christmas. They are also playing in many club shows.

After the plays the neighborhood group joined in playing several games and then all were presented gifts from their secret pals.

Those present were Doris Udy, Gladys Clinton, Dorothy Frey, Lucy Pessulich, Mary Wilhelm, Merla Wilson, Agnes Rogers, and Janet Robinson. Refreshments consisted of ice cream, coffee and gaily decorated Christmas cup cakes with candles to celebrate Mary Wilhelm's birthday that day.

Bob Buckley, 4403 Green Meadows, left recently for Kansas City to attend Trans-World Airlines school for his captain's upgrading.

Bob has been a pilot with TWA for the past 10 years. Maude and daughter Susie will stay here through the holidays and then plan to join Bob in Kansas City in January.

They have leased their home here to a family from Montreal, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Lagaud and their three children.

They are hoping to be sent back to Los Angeles when Bob completes his schooling.

Loradel DeArmitt held a toy party in her home on Monday evening. The house was decorated in the Christmas motif and Loradel's neighbor, Phyllis Birch was the demonstrator.

Those taking advantage of the opportunity to stay at home and shop for the small fry were Joan Nelson, Helen Driesler, Dottie Hurst, Lois Bloom, Dolly Seaver, Nellie LaMotte, Buff Meek, and Dottie Hill. Spice cake and coffee refreshments were served at the close of the party.

The southern section of the Campfire Girls and Bluebirds in the Harbor District held their annual Christmas program at the Wilhal Recreation Center in Wilmington on Sunday.

Girls from the two Ellinwood Campfire Groups participated and from the two Ellinwood Bluebird Groups. They joined together in a Christmas Carol Group and sang "Deck the Halls."

Those participating from Mrs. Marian Tripaldi's group were Stephanie and Susan Schenk, Charlene and Marilyn Hackbusch, Yvonne Whitecotton, Phyllis Stanley and Bonnie Tripaldi.

Girls from Mrs. Trudy McLeod's Group were Vickie Peebles, Linda Calohan, Janny Robinson and Becky McLeod.

From Mrs. Phyllis Wells Bluebird Group were Donna Schenk, Jeanne Tripaldi, No-reen Cork, Suzanne Wells, and Leslie Gary.

The newest Ellinwood Bluebird Group was just recently formed and we were unable to get the names for today's column, but will give a report on Mrs. Vivian Gary's group at a later date.

Newton Executive PTA Board members—don't forget the board meeting this morning at Mrs. Lawrence Dailey's home, 179 Via Los Miradores, at 10 a.m.

If you are clearing out the old toys to make way for the new, send them to Newton School with your children.

The fifth grade Girl Scouts of Troop 156 have placed boxes in all the classrooms for used toys to be collected by the Toy Loan organization. All kinds of toys in any condition can be used, even spare wheels and puzzles with pieces missing.

These toys will be repaired in the Toy Loan workshop and distributed through the Toy Loan centers. The final date for sending toys is next Monday.

The next PTA meeting to be held at the Newton School cafeteria at 10 a.m. on Tuesday. Mrs. Henry Graef, president, promises an interesting program put on by the intermediate grade children. Richard Baum will lead the school band in some selections.
